This Is the Last ILA of the Semester

But because of the current state of affairs, we will publish a bi-weekly issue beginning Sunday, May 3.

Please plan to join Dean Parrish for a Town Hall on Friday, May 1 at 2:00 p.m. EDT. It will be in webinar format: <https://iu.zoom.us/s/9186024495>. Watch for emails from Dean Parrish with updates about the summer courses and the fall semester.

Fashion of Maurer and Mascots of Maurer on Instagram, and the hashtags #ExcelinIsolation or SBA's #MaurerPower on Instagram, Facebook, or Twitter are good ways to stay connected on social media. Your best source for information about the Law School's response to the COVID-19 virus specifically can be found in this special section of our website. It is updated often.

Best wishes to all of you for a safe, healthy, and productive summer. We hope to see all of you (in person) this fall.

Orientation Session for All Judicial Interns and Externs, Summer 2020

This session is required for judicial externs who are registering for externship credit and for externs in the Rural Justice Initiative. It prepares students who will be working for a judge this summer, whether in-person or remotely. It also serves as a kick-off for the new Judicial Summer Intern/Extern Community that will be created this summer to supplement your experience as a judicial intern and complement your remote or in-person work.

If you plan to attend, please sign up on CareerNet. If you have questions, please contact Prof. Van der Cruysse at ivanderc@indiana.edu. The session will take place on Wednesday, April 22, at noon.

Join via Zoom at <https://iu.zoom.us/j/92252843920>

IndyBar Women and the Law Division Mentoring Program

The Indybar understands that COVID-19 has created an uncertain and stressful situation for law students, especially those who are graduating this spring. In an effort to help students navigate these unprecedented times, the IndyBar Women and the Law Division would like to offer to law students at IU Maurer School of Law the opportunity to join its 2020 Mentoring Program. The program opens the door to the IndyBar's abundant network of women lawyers ready to aid law students in their success as future lawyers in Indianapolis. There is no cost to join the program. During the pandemic, mentor groups have been meeting remotely through apps such as Zoom. If you are interested in joining the WLD Mentor Program, please email Deneen Fitzgerald at dfitzgerald@indybar.org by Friday, April 24.

Exam Prep: Electronic Study Aids and Casebooks

As you head into exams, the Jerome Hall Law Library wanted to highlight a few helpful resources to assist in your studies:

- Electronic Casebooks: In case you left your textbooks at school when you departed for spring break, the Law Library has been creating a list of which books are available electronically through the publisher. You can find the list here.
- Online Study Aids: A number of legal publishers have made their online study aids available for the remainder of the Spring 2020 semester.
 - LexisNexis Study Aids, available through the LexisNexis Digital Library; log in with your IU credentials. (Hint: if you view all titles, you can filter on the left to Study Aids.)
 - West Academic's Study Aids, including hornbooks and nutshells and the popular Gilbert Law Summaries
 - Wolters Kluwer's Online Study Aid Library, including the popular Examples & Explanations series, as well as Emanuel law outlines
 - CALI Lessons: Don't forget our friends at CALI and their hundreds of self-paced tutorials on a wide array of legal subjects. Email Ashley (aaahlbra@indiana.edu) for the CALI activation code.

The Bluebook Online – noted in a previous ILA, as a reminder, you can also get 60-day complimentary access to The Bluebook online. Email Ashley (aaahlbra@indiana.edu) if you are interested..

Jumpstart: Prepare to Practice

This year, the Jerome Hall Law Library's summer research tutorials are going virtual. The law librarians are working to make videos and other materials on several legal research topics: administrative law, legislative history, docket research, Indiana legal research, and a general refresher course. These materials will be put on Canvas and made available to anyone who is interested. You'll be notified when the sessions are finished and will be provided with instructions on accessing the Canvas page.

In addition to these sessions, the law librarians are available virtually to help with any research needs you may have over the summer. Please email any librarian directly, fill out the Ask a Librarian form, or use chat reference to set up a reference appointment.
